A defendant who is convicted of a criminal offense punishable by fine only is entitled to alternative methods of satisfying the judgment against them if they are unable to pay the fine of costs, in whole or in part. Those alternative methods include:

- (1) A payment plan, allowing the defendant to make payments toward the fine and costs in designated intervals. Note that if any amount is paid more than 30 days after the judgment assessing the fine or costs then a $15 time payment fee must be assessed.
- (2) Disposition of amount assessed by performing community service. There are many options that meet the requirements of the law for community service, see Art. 45.049 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for full details.
- (3) If performing community service imposes an undue hardship, a defendant who is indigent or who lacks sufficient resources to pay may be eligible for a waiver of the fine and costs, in whole or in part.
